Commissioners and Committees.

Concerning the report that a difficulty is said to exist between the park committee and commissioners, and that an account had been presented about which the committee knew nothing, one of the commissioners states that the account in question is a bill for plants, etc., ordered last fall, but only delivered a few days ago. The facts are that the commissioners understand that all bills are supposed to be certified to, and all checks indorsed by them, hence no special effort has been made to keep the committee informed as to the business in hand. This course has, however, resulted in some confusion, but it is very likely that the tangle will be set straight without trouble.

A FIENDISH ATTEMPT

TO BURN TENEMENT HOUSE IN THE HEART NEW YORK CITY.

Two Jewish Tailors Captured While Setting Fire to One—The Lives of Hundreds of People in Peril—The President's Trip Will be Abandoned.

NEW YORK, March 23.—Following close upon the tenant house horror at Hester and Allen streets, in which four persons perished, and the last 29th street tenement fire, which cost two more lives, with a strong suspicion that incendiarism was the cause of the last fire, came reports to the police yesterday of two clear and undoubted cases of attempted incendiarism of a particularly atrocious kind. A third case, almost as clear, and a fourth, in which there is good reason to believe that such scoundrelly work was planned. In all, the lives of fifty-eight families, comprising probably two hundred people were placed in jeopardy by these attempts; each fire having been started in a tenement house. In only one case were there any arrests, but in this the case seems to be positive, as a policeman, by peculiar good luck, saw the would-be firebugs in the very act. This latter case occurred in the five-storey tenement on Catherine street. The top floor of this building is occupied by three Polish Jew tailors, who slept and worked there. The policeman in question happened to see the windows of these bloom with light, and there was a sudden burst of flame which illuminated the interior of the room, and the policeman saw one of the tailors with a can in his hand, the contents of which he was emptying about the room, while the other two Poles stood in the background. The officer started for the apartments, and when he reached there quickly smothered the fire with a mattress. The three tailors looked on without showing excitement or anxiety, and did not offer to assist the officer. When arrested they said they had upset a lamp.

U. S. Navy Movements.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The continued war-like news from Chili renders it likely that the Charleston will be sent along with the San Francisco to join the Baltimore and Pensacola in these waters. Should this be done, and it was very seriously considered at the navy department yesterday, Rear-Admiral Brown will receive authority to transfer his flag from the Charleston to the San Francisco. Rear-Admiral McCann would then, by virtue of seniority, be in command, but only temporarily, as the intention is to have him resume command of the South Atlantic squadron as soon as practicable. When he returns to the South Atlantic it will probably be in the Baltimore, the Pensacola remaining in the South Pacific.

There Were Millions In It.

NEW YORK, Mar. 23.—A Sun special from Corry, Pa., says: Chauncy Marble, a farmer well known in this section, and who operates a saw mill, was brought in here to-day by officers, and taken to Erie by a detective, where he was lodged in jail on a charge of making and selling counterfeit dollars. The dies and moulds have been secured. Some months ago a detective hired out as a farm hand to Marble, and was thus enabled to ferret out the matter. His wages were paid in coin fresh from the farmer's own mint.

Harrison Will Not Travel.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—The Post says the trip of the President to California is likely to be postponed, if not abandoned. In conversation with a Californis representative, the President said the questions of foreign and domestic policy were becoming so numerous that he did not see how it would be possible for him to leave Washington for five or six weeks, and he certainly should abandon the trip rather than leave work in an unfinished condition. Great preparations have been made in California for the visit of the President.

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION

Regarding the Fur Seals Will Not be Materially Different From Last Year.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—It is said that the regular annual proclamation for the protection of the fur seals in Behring sea will be issued by the President in the early part of the present week. This proclamation is issued in accordance with the provisions of acts of Congress forbidding the killing of fur seals within the limits of Alaska territory, or the waters thereof, and directing the President to make a proclamation to this effect. It is said that the document will be substantially the same in form as that of last year. The negotiations between the Governments of the United States and Great Britain, looking to a settlement by arbitration, of the question at issue with respect to the waters of Behring sea, it is said, have not advanced enough as yet to warrant and medification of the platform of proclamation.

DIED THIS MORNING.

A Well-Known Diplomatist Dead—A Sketch of His Life.

LONDON, March 23.—Sir Patrick Macrombach de Colquhoun, Bart, L.L. D., died suddenly to-day. The deceased was the eldest son of the late chevalier James de Colquhoun and was born 1815. He was called to the bar in 1838 and appointed plenipotentiary by the Hanseatic republics to conclude treaties with Turkey, Persia and Greece. He is the author of "a summary of the Roman civil law, illustrated by commentaries and parallels from the Mosaic Canon Mohammedan, English and foreign laws published it 1839-60. He has held the positions of aulic councillor to the King of Saxony, counsel to H.S.M.'s legation, councillor of the Grand Duke of Oldenburgh, member of the supreme council of justice of the Ionian Islands, by Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton in 1858, became chief justice of the court in 1861, and received the honor of knighthood. On his return to England, he was appointed one of Her Majesty's counsel and a member of the Inner Temple bench. He was the author of various treatises on the learned political and classical subjects in different languages.

NEWS FROM NANAIMO.

Service of Song at St. Paul's Church—Other Events.

The service of song held at St. Paul's church yesterday afternoon, proved to be a great event in Christian circles. Long before the pealing of the bell ceased the church had become packed to its utmost capacity and every available seat was occupied; forms and chairs were brought into requisition and utilized immediately, in fact so packed had the church become that many were compelled to walk away as they found it impossible to get within the doors. Rev. J. B. Good (rector) has every reason to be proud of the success which attended his efforts to promote a good feeling among the church people in this city. Mr. Kirkham, the organist, is deserving of mention, and the opening piece from his skilful hand was truly delightful. The programme arranged was rendered as follows:

Consider the Lilies ..... Miss Dumps
Come unto Me ..... Mrs W. R. Leighton
Calvary ..... Mrs. Hepland
Lord, for Thy Tender Mercy's Sake ..... Anthem Quartette—Mrs. Davies, Miss Bate, Mr. Bendelt, Mr. Taggart.
Instrumental ..... Mr. Taggart
Abide With Me ..... Miss Gladolm
Jerusalem ..... Mr. Dempster
Garden of Prayer ..... Miss Bate
All Glory, Laud and Honor ..... Choir

The rector paid a high tribute to those who had kindly taken part in the singing, which was most deserving, as it tended to show that there is no necessity to go beyond the city of Nanaimo to hear talent of a high order. It is only to be hoped that the service will be given a little more frequently. A collection was taken up at the close of the proceedings and the sum of $60 realized which goes towards the organ and choir fund.

SERENADING THE CITIZENS.

The Nanaimo brass band turned out on Saturday night and serenaded the citizens generally. The band has made a vast improvement during the past few months, and the pieces played by them on Saturday night, which were taken from the great masters, called forth loud applause from their listeners. The band are going to the expense of having new uniforms made, which will incur a considerable outlay, so it is to be hoped they will get good support when "Neck or Nothing" is produced in their behalf. Already 250 tickets have been sold and as many more will probably be disposed of before the event takes place.

A FORTUNE IN IT.

It is surprising to notice the enormous quantity of large trees that are annually consigned to the flames by persons who are daily engaged in clearing acres of land of the large timber which grows thereon. If some enterprising speculator would venture to import a saw mill to this city and run it, he would quickly realize a handsome fortune. Those who own wild land would be glad to have the timber cleared from it, without charging for it, while the owner of such an appliance could in return sell the timber for building purposes to the owner of the property, and thereby render a double advantage to both. It is a difficult matter to get lumber out to many of these places, on account of the rough roads, which as yet are not graded very evenly. It seems a sin that so much good timber should be consigned to the flames without any effort being made to utilize it.

DO NOT BELIEVE IN DARWIN.

The Y.M.C.A. debating society was well attended on Saturday evening by a large number of persons anxious to hear the Darwinian theories propounded. Mr. W. Hunter, B. A., and Ald. Dobeson took the affirmative, and Rev. W. W. Baer and Rev. McRae, the negative. Although Mr. Hunter put forth strong arguments in favor of the great evolutionist, it was apparent the negative had the best side of the debate. The reverend gentlemen appeared to have their own way from the start and they were not slow in following up their advantage. After they had completed the debate the question was put to a ballot, and the result was a sweeping majority in favor of the negative. A loud burst of applause followed the announcement.

RE-ENTERING POLITICS.

PRINCE BISMARCK WILL BE ELECTED TO THE REICHSTAG.

The Probable Leader of the Centre Party in Berlin—A Protest From the Chilian Insurgents—A Treaty Between France and Russia Probable.

LONDON, March 23.—There will be no serious opposition to the election of Prince Bismarck to the reichstag from Gostemunde. A Hamburg correspondent says that even the socialists favor the election of Bismarck, on the ground that they are antagonized by both him and the Kaiser, and their party will be benefitted by the two arrayed each against the other. At first the National Liberals tried to oppose his nomination, and are said to have been prompted in this course by powerful influences from the palace, but the overwhelming sentiment of the party compelled the committee to recede and accept the choice.

At a meeting of prominent men of the centre party in Berlin on Sunday, Count Ballestrem was mentioned as the probable choice of the party for leadership. It was decided, however, to await the return from Rome of Archbishop Kopp, who has gone to consult with the pope. Count Bollestrem's selection is probable, but it is believed here he will be only the nominal chief of the party, and that he will leave the hard work to the younger and more active men.

A protest has been received in Berlin from the agents of the Chilian insurgents against permitting the departure to Chili of the vessels bought by Balmaceda for warlike purposes.

No news whatever has been received from Berlin of the conclusion of an alliance between Russia and France, and nothing beyond rumor appears to be known of the matter there. A Paris dispatch says the officials there are reticent, but the impression prevails that a formal understanding was concluded some months ago, and France has been bringing strong pressure to make the agreement one of a formal alliance.

Paris advices state that the personal report carried to the Czar by Count Schouvaloff, the Russian ambassador at Berlin, and now on vacation in Russia, greatly strengthens the cause of France, and the count impressed the czar with the belief that Germany was now without a military head, and the time was favorable for striking a blow at that country. A formal treaty of alliance with France, if not concluded, is therefore not improbable. The czar's rescript to the Finns, in which he renews the pledge of his predecessors to support their constitution, is also thought significant. The czar withheld the pledge for ten years, granting it on the tenth anniversary of his accession, and it is supposed he wished to assure himself, in the event of war, of the loyalty of the Finns which was much shaken by the recent infringment on their rights.

BOOMING EVEN IN ENGLAND.

Baron Rothschild has removed all doubt as to the success of the scheme to make Manchester a port of entry. He assured the directors of the canal being constructed from Liverpool to Manchester that if the Manchester city corporation should fail to carry out its promise to supply the needed seventeen hundred thousand pounds, he will himself supply the necessary amount to complete the work.

AT THE BRITISH TAX-PAYER'S COST.

Queen Victoria started to-day for the Riveria. Her Majesty is accompanied by the Princess and Prince Henry of Battenberg. They go by the royal yacht "Victoria and Albert" to Cherbourg, and thence by train. The Queen will remain at Grasse until the middle of April.

WILL BE DROP OUT NOW.

Justin McCarthy will take no part in the Sligo struggle, and intimate friends of McCarthy says he will have little more to do with Irish politics in Ireland.

Valuable phosphorous mines have been discovered at Harve, Belgium.

The Hanoverian Crown.

LONDON, March 23.—A Berlin dispatch says that the Bootticher scandal has revived the question of the disposition of the Guelph's fund which the Kaiser some time ago proposed to return to the house of Hanover, that house on its part relinquishing all claims to the Hanoverian crown. It is said that Queen Victoria and the Kaiser talked the matter over at their meeting last summer and that the question was settled so far as the Kaiser could settle it. The scheme, however, has not been submitted to the Prussian parliament, for the disposition of the money is a question affecting Prussia alone.

A Bogus List of Names.

DUBLIN, March 23.—The National Press to-day publishes a communication from Canon Kearney, in which he expresses astonishment at finding his name mentioned by Freeman's Journal as one of those who had forwarded a contribution to the lord mayor of five pounds with the request that it be applied to Parnell fund. The National Press considers that the denial of the canon suggests the existence of a bogus list of subscriptions to the fund.

HOW FELTON WON.

De Young and Spreckels Smoked the Pipe of Peace.

Up to yesterday the tide has been running heavily in favor of Estee. This was caused by the fact that he has been gaining votes every day, and that it was believed that De Young and the Spreckels brothers would never get together. It was thought that a deadly feud existed between De Young and the supporters of Felton, as one of them attempted to kill the newspaper man for slandering his family, and the politicians reasoned that if a man ever should be thoroughly mad and revengeful it ought to be De Young, but they did not understand him. On Sunday John D. Spreckels, who is making Felton's fight, circulated the idea about the Palace hotel, in San Francisco, that he preferred De Young to Estee. This tickled Michael, and when, a little while afterward, overtures of friendship followed, Spreckels and De Young met and shook hands over the bloody chasm.

Having made friends, a bargain as to the senatorship was immediately made. It was agreed to return to Sacramento and use all the power of Felton's supporters to increase De Young's vote. If it was found that he could not be elected, then De Young was to withdraw in Felton's favor. The details of this bargain were so amazing that when they were reported here yesterday nobody believed them. The ballot yesterday resulted in increasing De Young's vote just one, showing conclusively that he could not win. In the afternoon it was announced that De Young had withdrawn. In order to make his bargain as notorious as possible he sent for the Kelly & Crimmins lambs, who have been voting for him, and told them in detail that he desired them to vote for Felton. The lambs who have been holding back from the first in the hope that Felton would open his sack, now scampered everywhere and spread the news. One legislator who witnessed this exhibition said: "If I had not been born in town for a week and had arrived here to-night, I would know that boodle had appeared. You can smell it in the air. I wonder what De Young gets for this. They have either promised him a place in the next President's cabinet or the ministry to France. He would not sell out unless he was doubly compensated."

It was reported on the streets that De Young's entire 24 votes were going to be transferred to Felton, and that Blanchard's vote would split up. On the strength of this the betting here, which was in Estee's favor, suddenly changed. Two men were sent out from Felton's rooms to take all bets against the Menlo Park man, and Dibble, Lowe and Marion, De Young's supporters in the assembly, took up their quarters in his rooms. De Young shut up his place and went to bed.

A part of the plan of the Kelly and Crimmins contingent to turn the tide against Estee was to circulate the story that Huntington and Stanford had issued orders to elect him. This, however, was soon laughed down, for it is known that repeated attempts on the part of legislators to procure orders from the railroad have failed, and it is known that Stanford up to yesterday had not interfered in the fight. That he did so yesterday, and in favor of Felton, is now generally believed. This belief is supported by the fact that today all the railroad men, including Stanford's personal adherents, will vote for Felton.

Last night a policeman who had been watching the progress of the furor created in the interest of Felton said: "I do not see how the Republicans of this state could expect anything else. The legislature was elected by Stanford with boodle. That shows where the money was used. Having been created in corruption, how could anybody expect that these men would not sell this senatorship to the highest bidder? This thing does not astonish me at all. I marvel that the election has been postponed so long; but of course Felton had to do something to apparently prove that he did not intend to bargain for the place. I am astonished, however, that DeYoung's virtue is so easy; indeed he does not appear to have any."—San Francisco Bulletin.

Hearst's Successor.

Charles N. Felton is a rich man, though no one knows just how much he is worth. He has lived in California for 20 years and was elected to congress six years ago from the Fifth disdrict. He was charged with having gained his election by fraud, and the house committee reported in favor of his being unseated, but this was not done, owing to pressure of important business, the report being brought in near the end of the session.

Felton made his money in mining speculations, owning at one time a large interest in the New Almaden quicksilver mines in Santa Clara county, which are among the richest in the country. He became largely interested in the petroleum wells of Southern California, and, after developing an opposition to the Standard Oil Company, sold out at a very large figure, giving the monopoly of the oil business to the Standard company. He has been closely identified with the railroad and other corporations of the state, and is the especial pet of Claus Spreckles, the sugar king, who is said to have spent $30,000 to procure his election to congress several years ago.

While in Washington Felton in no way distinguished himself. In appearance he is thick set, under the average size and wears a stubby sandy mustache. At Saccamento his fight was handled by the notorious Bill Carr, a wealthy Republican "boss."

The charge of bribery which created such a scare a couple of days ago was made by "Dan" Burns, Estee's manager, against Henry C. Dibble, member of the legislature from San Francisco, an old-time friend of Carr's and a thorough-going politician. Dibble was a member of the famous Louisiana Returning Board of 1876. He was a carpet-bagger and an ex-soldier. His political pull is with the corporations and Grand Army men. He supported De Young in the first part of the senatorial fight, but this was looked upon as a piece of political strategy done to test Estee's strength.

[From the Kootenay Star.]

Snow slides are beginning to move though no heavy ones have come yet.

The beautiful snow is anything but beautiful these fine days, but happily is fast sliding away to the river.

The electric bells have been placed in the new Victoria and all work like a charm. The Victoria will be the only hotel in the interior supplied with electric ringers.

On Monday night District Organizer Rev. T. W. Hall, of Kamloops Lodge attended a large meeting of the temperance people in the Methodist Church, when Columbia Lodge was organized, with a membership of 36.

A Chinese company have begun operations in placer mining on the benches and bars about two miles up the river from town, on the same side of the river. They are satisfied if they can at least make $3 to the man, and will employ thirty men if that can be worked to advantage.

Mr. J. F. Christie, secretary of the Columbia & Kootenay Steam Navigation Co., has returned to town, after a two months visit to Kamloops and the coast. The appliances for the new steamer being built at the lakes, are arriving daily and all will be ready for shipment as soon as navigation opens.

[From the Sentinel.]

During last week the temperature at Kamloops was as high as 58, and as low as 29 degrees.

Kamloops has challenged Grand Prairie for a return shooting match, which it is proposed to hold in Kamloops, next Friday.

Mr. Wogan, late manager of the Hudson's Bay Company at Vernon, has decided to open a photographic studio in the future capital of the Interior.

Six car loads of prime cattle were shipped from Kamloops on Wednesday for the coast market. Some of the animals came from Calgary, but the majority were from local ranges.

Shortly after one o'clock on Monday morning fire was discovered to have broken out in the church of England, Kamloops. The flames, caused by a defective stove pipe, were extinguished before any damage of consequence was done.

Mr. Price Ellison, of Vernon, one of the leading ranchers of the district, and owner of the mail stage between Sicamous, Vernon and the Mission, has lately placed on Long Lake a beautiful pleasure yacht, which the pleasure seekers of Vernon will fully appreciate, as the scenery and fishing on Long Lake cannot be excelled.

On Tuesday last, the Lord Bishop of New Westminster held a confirmation service in the English Church, Kamloops. Eight persons relieved their godfathers and godmothers certain things they did promise and vow on their behalf at their baptism. The crowded edifice was crowded on the occasion, and his Lordship delivered a very impressive address to those who were confirmed.

People in the Mission Valley are still kicking against the Government, owing to its not having appointed a constable for that long-suffering district. It is now over two months since Mr. Ellis' hay was burned, and the incendiary is still at large. The Provincial Government draws a large revenue from the division, and the demand for a local constable is a modest one, and should be granted without further delay.

Naval Notes.

A London dispatch of March 16 says: The test at Shoeburyness of the (so-called) Zalinski pneumatic gun, built for the Victoria Government, is a pronounced success. At 4,000 yards range the projectiles were thrown into a rectangle two and one-half yards long by two and one-half yards wide. The head of the British artillery say that such accuracy is beyond anything he ever conceived possible. The navy is still opposed to the gun for sea purposes."

Of Mr. Stanhope, British Secretary of State for War, the Army and Navy Gazette says: "He possesses one excellent quality—excellent in a soldier, but mischievous enough in a Secretary of State; he never knows when he is beaten. When right, he is very right, and he is never wrong. Mr. Stanhope deserves credit for the doggedness with which he resists all attacks upon his administration, and for his intrepid defence of the magazine rifle."

The Americans present at the launch at Portsmouth, Eng., last week were much struck by the display of an enormous American ensign side by side with the royal standard of England, both fluttered in the breeze above the pretty pavilion in which the Queen performed the ceremony of launching the big ironclad Royal Sovereign.

The coal endurance of H.M.S. Melpomene is reported to have sunk 3,000 miles at 10 knots and she has no sail power. As a result of her cramped accommodations in hot weather, 39 men were on the sick list when she arrived at Panama recently.

In answer to Senator Hawley's inquiry as to what we are to do when we find "British war vessels in the harbor of New York," the N.Y. Commercial Advertiser replied: Confiscate the property now owned by Englishmen in the United States, amounting to more than $2,000,000,000. To this a London paper responds: "It thus seems that both cities are under obligations to keep the peace, and so long as we can all sleep quiet at nights that is enough for us."

A writer describing life on board of a man-of-war says: "The captain keeps to his apartment, which is guarded by the orderly, and both he and the admiral are surrounded by a chilly mass of etiquette. When the captain grows tired of reading he can smoke, and console himself with the reflection that when he is admiral he will have his staff moss with him. When he grows weary of reflection on the glories of admiralhood he can play solitaire, and when he is tired of that he can denounce his own idiocy in yielding to such an amusement."

"The Jersey Lily,"

Is what Millais christened his famous portrait of that celebrated woman who since became familiarly known to the public by that expressive and appropriate name. In turn she has coupled her fame with that of the most celebrated toilette article in existence, as witness what she says:—

ANGLESEA COTTAGE, L.B., July 2

Gentlemen,—Altho' it is very unusual for me to use any lotions or washes, still, in answer to your request, I have tried Wisdom's Violet Cream and Robertine. The former I consider especially efficacious in cases of roughness of the skin, and I have been using it every day for the last fortnight. I have found the Robertine an excellent preparation in cases of tan, sunburn, etc., caused by exposure to March winds and a July sky.

Yours faithfully,
LILLIE LANGTRY.

THE MISSION TO WASHINGTON.

Sir CHAS. TUPPER and Sir JOHN THOMPSON are now probably in Washington, where they will confer with Secretary BLAINE relative to a reciprocity treaty based on that of 1854 with "modifications." It is to be hoped that the mission of these gentlemen will prove successful. England herself, if rumors are half true, will gladly acquiesce in reciprocal trade relations between the United States and Canada, these relations, of course, being based on grounds not wholly inimical to herself. England has sense enough to know that Canadian loyalty depends on Canadian prosperity. The experience of a century has taught England that the best guarantee of colonial loyalty is a condition of prosperity and healthy development. Those, however, who have remarked the extraordinary policy of Sir JOHN, and particularly his recent utterances, will seriously question the honesty of this mission, for, unless the "modifications" of which Sir CHARLES speaks, are broad ones, it is certain that the Americans will not entertain them for a moment. Now, is a restrictionist government going into the broad "modification" business so soon after an election? It is not likely. To do so would be to acknowledge National Policy a failure, and it is doubtful if Sir JOHN is yet prepared to admit as much. No; the whole thing in all reasonable probability is a shallow dust throwing operation. It is expected the commission will be a failure, which will enable Sir JOHN with a serious face to declare to Her Majesty's "faithful Commons in Parliament, assembled," that the Americans again have refused to trade with Canada on terms compatible with Canadian loyalty. Still, knowing that Sir JOHN has great facility of adaption, and that with small regard to what his policy has been, we need not be surprised if the "modifications" are broad enough to invite the serious attention of the American Premier. The character of the recent elections must have convinced Sir JOHN that the people are resolved on a modification of National Policy, and he is not the man to thwart the wishes of the people at the risk of losing political prestige. Canadians irrespective of political bias will regard with interest the movements of Sir CHARLES and Sir JOHN THOMPSON, and should it come to pass that the "modifications" of the treaty of 1854 are made broad enough to find favor in the eyes of BLAINE it will be funny to note the expressions of approval which will distinguish the Tory press. The Colonist and the Telegram will be in tears and Tory M.P.'s will sit in sack cloth and ashes and refuse to be comforted.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The western peninsula of Ontario, where the Liberals made their largest gains, gave a popular majority against the Government of 9,000 to 10,000.

In one polling place in Rimouski, where there were only one hundred votes, the War Minister received one hundred and fifty. That is how it was done. The habitues of the cemeteries were all Government supporters.

Major E. G. PORTER, of Belleville, voted twice in the West Hastings election. It is alleged that he knew better, but was so anxious for the success of the Conservative cause that he risked a violation of the law. He will be prosecuted.

The Colonist derives some comfort from the large majorities given to Conservatives in Montreal, Toronto, Compton, Ottawa, Alberta, etc. It forgot, perhaps, that Mr. COLBY was defeated by a large majority, and that Mr. CARLING had been relegated to private life. It overlooked the fact that no prominent member of the Liberal party, unless Hon. PETER MITCHELL be described as a Liberal, was defeated, and that the majorities by which the leading men of the party were elected, were all largely increased.

The comparison suggested between the Colonist and the London Times re the Mafia massacre seems to have rasped the former slightly. The Colonist explains its position by saying that the Times is not infallible, and that so far as it, the Colonist, is concerned, it has not yet seen any evidence to show that the lynched Sicilians were members of the Mafia. It would not surprise us in the least if the Colonist should next assert that Chief of Police HENNESSEY was assassinated by order of some benevolent society.

Lord TENNYSON is well known for his apprehension of being mobbed, and many stories are circulated in regard to this monomania. One in an English paper says that Lord TENNYSON was taking a country walk with a friend, when a fellow creature was espied in the distance. "We must turn back," said the poet, "That fellow means to waylay us." His companion persuaded him, however, to continue on their path. They caught up to the enemy and passed him. He took no notice of them whatever. "What an extraordinary thing," cried the irate poet, "the fellow seems to have no idea who I am!"

In point of actual distance covered, the greatest traveller in the world is said to be Chief Engineer SEWELL of the White Star fleet. While in charge of the engine department of vessels of that line, notably the Britannic, Mr. SEWELL completed one hundred and thirty-two round trips between Liverpool and New York, traveling the enormous distance of 818,400 nautical, or 941,000 standard miles, nearly four times the distance between the earth and the moon. This is said to be only about two-thirds of the total distance traversed by Mr. SEWELL since he became a seagoing engineer.

The Vancouver World, when its ideas fail it, which is too often the case, resorts to quotation of old saws. The last effort in this line, in which it seeks to reflect on the TIMES, is that old familiar line, fool's venturing where angels fear to tread. It is only necessary for the TIMES to say that it worships not at the feet of any political Gamaliel. If the World chooses to play the game "follow your leader," well and good. The TIMES, however, right or wrong, will continue to think for itself. "What is truth?" In view of the unanswerability of this question, what man has license to dictate and who but a fool or a sycophant will accept the dictum of any man?

The charge has again been made against the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery (Mr. CHAPLEAU) that he is delaying the publication in the Gazette of the names of the Liberal members elected. This trick was resorted to in 1887. Protests must be entered a certain number of days after the publication in the Gazette and, of course, the longer the publication is deferred the more time the Government party will have to collect evidence for protests. This is why Mr. CHAPLEAU gazettes the names of Government members as fast as received. Between the gerrymander, the revising barrister, dead voters, unenfranchised supporters, partizan and stupid returning officers, and an interested Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, it is really surprising that the Government's majority is not 60 or 70.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER'S method of despensing charity is described by the Cleveland Plaindealer. It says that the great bulk of his mail is examined by his private secretary, and only the few appeals which impress the latter gentleman favorably are passed along to Mr. ROCKEFELLER, who takes a stack of them to the breakfast table every morning, and distributes them among his children. These members of his family, says the Plaindealer, are charged with the duty of opening the letters and consulting their contents. Then each child decides what shall be done with the application, and the decision is written upon the envelope, and the name signed for reference, if need be. After breakfast, Mr. ROCKEFELLER gathers up the mail and personally inspects each application. He weighs the case, and then acts as his conscience dictates. This dictation is frequently contrary to the decision rendered by his child, but that does not end the matter—not at all. The father gathers his children about him and reviews his case, announcing his decions, and, when they conflict with those given by the children, he explains the reason.

THE DOMINION FRANCHISE.

TO THE EDITOR: "Can a man be registered where he has property, no matter how many different places to vote in each and every district where that property is at every Dominion election under the Dominion Act?"

J. B. L.

Answer—Yes. The only obstacle to his voting in different electoral districts, where registered, would be that the elections being held simultaneously the voter might not be able to get around quick enough to take in more than half a dozen or so, and only then where the constituencies were close together. Of course a voter can only vote in one constituency once.

PASSENGERS' BAGGAGE.

New Rule in Reference to Searching by the Customs Officers.

The arrangements for the detection of smugglers, and the detention of smuggled goods which might arrive by the Sound steamers has not in the past given the best satisfaction, and in consequence a new departure has been decided on by the local authorities, which will take effect this week.

Officers will be stationed at the freight sheds, and all communication with those on the wharves will be stopped while the passengers from the boats are landing. Tables will be provided at which the customs officers will sit, and parties carrying valises will place them on the tables, where they can be opened and examined rapidly and thoroughly. When the examination is over the passenger can pass along out of the building and make room for others. This will be done until all the passengers are out, when the boat will be searched.

To enable the customs officers to more readily carry out the new rules, officers from the city police will be asked to attend at the wharf when the steamers arrive, and everything will be done to make the searching of passengers' luggage as little inconvenience as possible. The great growth of passenger traffic has made it necessary to make this new rule. The change is sure to meet with the approval of the traveling public, as the old method of inspecting baggage as the passengers crowded on to the gangway was not without its disadvantages to both sides.

VERDI'S "LA TRAVIATA."

A Finished Performance of this Great Work By the Hess Opera Company.

There may be more than one reason why the Victoria theatre was not crowded to the door Saturday evening last, on the occasion of the performance of "La Traviata" by the Hess Opera Company. One of these reasons may be that Victoria has had a plethora of opera within this past month. That, however, should not be sufficient to keep a music-loving public from hearing the best piece of the season performed and sung by undoubtedly the best company that has visited this city during the present year. "La Traviata" was not put on with dazzling scenic effect by the company, but the costumes were very good, especially that of Miss Guthrie, who in the last act was a delicious dream in rich white lace. The general acting of the company, one and all, was a highly successful effort at naturalness. Each one acted his or her part; no one made himself or herself unduly prominent. The music, vocal and instrumental, was in keeping with the evident, finished ability of the entire company. Verdi's music is never "easy," it is not always interpreted with the spirit intended by the author, but is often rendered with mechanical accuracy only, although there is always "soul" in his compositions. Thus to hear it correctly and soulfully rendered, vocally and instrumentally, is a rare event. It met with such treatment by Miss Guthrie and her powerful company, and further, it was interpreted with that higher spirit and feeling which the author's works are noted for. The company caught this, whether naturally or by careful study is immaterial, but the audience felt it and warmly evinced their sense of obligation. Additional depth of feeling was lent to a great portion of the opera by its rendition in French. Translate those portions and the opera is robbed of all its poetry and fascinating sentiment. Miss Guthrie has caught the accent with a quaint sweetness which makes her more than charming.

The story of Traviata is too well known not only to the habitual theatre goer, but to the general reader, to need detailed mention. Miss Guthrie's conception of the role of Violetta was a revelation which few expected. She invested it with a something that won the sympathies of her audience the very moment she appeared. Probably not a member of that assembly had ever seen this lady before, yet she was greeted with a spontaneous outburst of that genuine applause, only accorded to familiar faces and old friends, so soon as she came on the stage. She was a picture of perfect style in evening dress, not too decolcite but just enough, with a presence that commanded combined respect and admiration. In a word Miss Guthrie combines the two qualities of being handsome and pretty; having the former as belonging to a queenly woman, and the latter as a beauty, and both are so well blended as to make her more than attractive, she is fascinating. Her acting is a perfect portrayal of nature. She is conscientious and faithful to her lines, yet adding to them an originality of tone and gesture not always or often met with in a difficult role. Her voice is sweet, rich, and full of a pathos that strikes the sympathies when she exercises it. Accompanied by elegant gesture it thrils the listener. As between Miss Foch and Miss Guthrie, the latter is her superior in dramatic force, and will win laurels with her in vocal expression and feeling, particularly in the lower and medium registers. She won golden opinions Saturday evening, and will capture thrice golden opinions before a crowded house to-night in "Faust." Mr. Henri Bovet was the hero. He has a tenor voice of sweet pliancy, well under control, very musical, and actuated by an honest conception of his part. He sang altogether in French. He made love in French; he courted in French; he quarreled with his ladylove in French, and he made his reconciliation in French. With such scope for histrionic ability, and such a lovely language with which to show it, Mr. Bovet had an unequalled opportunity. The audience testified their unqualified appreciation and delight, as his thoroughly deserved reward.

Mr. William Mertens is a baritone. When that is said of him it is meant to express the fact that he does not figure as such, that he is not called such, but that he is one. His voice is musical to a degree of richness rarely heard in the present day baritone; he has a commanding presence to support his fine voice, and he has a soul to appreciate what he is singing.

The remainder of the company were up to the general standard, and in several cases surpassed it, notably Miss Emma Miron, Mr. Henry Peaks and Mr. John Read. The orchestration was by careful musicians under the able direction of Prof. Liesegang.

"Faust" will be played this evening by special request, and should command a crowded house. The beautiful "Lucia di Lammermoor" will be given on Tuesday evening.

SPORTING INTELLIGANCE.

Matters of Interest Going Forward in the Sporting World, Here and Elsewhere.

THE BASEBALL QUARREL ENDED.

The American association and National league are reconciled. The association has agreed to come back under the protection of the National agreement. These facts were discovered late on Friday. The immediate cause of their disclosure was a dispatch received by a director of the New York club, stating that Allen Thurman has resigned the chairmanship of the National board and Nick Young has been elected in his place. It developed last evening that Thurman's retirement had been planned some time ago. Byrne, Doyle and Abels, of the Brooklyn club, have been particularly active in effecting a reconciliation. The association people refuse to treat with Thurman, which is the cause of his retirement. What made the league particularly anxious for a reconciliation with the association was the discovery that legal complications were sure to result in Cincinnati. The league men discovered that Johnson does not control as much stock in the Cincinnati club as they thought he did. He only controls with the assistance of Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia contingents.

LACROSSE.

The Victoria Lacrosse Club will hold its annual meeting to-morrow evening in the offices of Lall & Lowe, Government street. The business of the evening will be to elect officers for the year and appoint delegates to the convention to be held at New Westminster on April 11.

A Busy Day.

There were more cases heard in the city police court this morning than there have been for months past, all of them of a trifling nature however. Five drunks, three of which were Indians, were fined five dollars each, and a keeper of a house of illfame was fined $50, and another of the same stamp was dismissed on promising to go to the refuge home. The colored girl who ran away from home and went to a bawdy house, was also discharged on promising to go to the home. D. Carley, charged with stealing $2.50 from C. Nangle, was discharged as the case turned out to be a dispute over a bet. Hy. Yee was fined $5 for over-driving his horse; and Charly, an Indian, charged with stealing a watch and chain was remanded.

IMPORTANT TO OWNERS.

Regulations Pertaining to the Carrying of Passengers by Steamboats.

A decision of considerable importance to steamboat owners has been made by the head of the Department of Marine, and notices will also be posted at the different custom-houses in the Province relating to the same. In the past it has been the custom with some steamers to take out a passenger certificate and employ duly certified engineers and masters when engaged in the passenger trade, and then when this traffic was dull, obtaining at a less wage non-certificated men, and continue running their boats as tugs and freight carriers. Whenever sufficient passengers offered, they would be carried, and very often the formality of engaging certified men was not gone through with. This has been very detrimental to those boat owners who have complied with the law, and excited considerable comment.

Steamboat Inspector Thomson has been authoritatively advised from Ottawa that while a steamer has a passenger certificate she must carry, as required by law, a certified master and engineer, and in conjunction with the customs collectors, such order has been issued by Mr. Thomson. The carrying of passengers by freight boats is also forbidden and the term passenger defined. It is held that anyone who takes passage on a steamer is a passenger even if he does not pay individually, but whose fare is paid for in a lump sum in connection with freight, as is often done in the case of squads of men going to logging camps. The rules given will be strictly enforced.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Arrived—Steamer Umatilla from Victoria.

The schooner Umbrina was towed out this morning and expects to reach the sealing grounds to-morrow.

The steamer Clyde, of Vancouver, which was partly burned some time ago, has been rebuilt and will be fitted with new engines.

The schooner Hesperus has cleared from Vancouver on a sealing cruise, she being the first vessel to leave that port on such an errand.

The barkentine Robert Sudden, 594 tons, has been chartered to load lumber at Moodyville for Sydney or Melbourne, the former at £2 11s 6d, the latter £3 7s 9d.

The steamer Batavia, which got ashore in the Columbia river last week, came into Esquimalt harbor this morning, and was at once hauled into the drydock, where she will be sighted and the extent of her injuries, if any, ascertained.

Advices have been received from the north by the Barbara Boscowitz that the steamer Nell, reported missing, is all right. The captain has written to a gentleman here, and makes no mention of the fact that she has ever been absent from her regular ports long enough to warrant the reports circulated about her.

One of the largest scows ever built on Burrard Inlet and almost of as gigantic proportions as those belonging to the C. P. R. Co., was launched at Moodyville on Saturday last. The scow is 100 feet long, 28 ft. wide, and 6 ft. 7 in. deep. Its great bulk requires five centre keelsons of 6-inch timber and 10 stanchions on each side 12x12 in. The outsides are 10-inch stuff, the bottom 5-inch, and the decks 4-inch. It was loaded with lumber for Victoria and carried 178,000 ft. This scow was built for the contractor for the outer wharf at Victoria, and will be used for hauling stone.

BANK OF B. N. A.

The Yearly General Meeting in London—The Directors' Report.

From the Canadian Gazette, March 5.

The 56th yearly general meeting of the proprietors was held on Tuesday at the bank, 3, Clements Lane, Lombard street, Mr. Richard H. Glyn in the chair. There was only a small attendance of shareholders.

The secretary, Mr. A. G. Wallis, having read the report of the directors which appeared in last week's Canadian Gazette,

The chairman said: Gentlemen, the accounts presented to-day show that the bank earned rather more last year than in the previous year, and I have no doubt that you will consider that satisfactory, especially when we bear in mind that last autumn was a period of very severe financial strain on both sides of the Atlantic. The figures in the balance sheet show some alterations which require a few words of explanation. The deposits and current accounts amounted to £1,982,932, against £2,261,378 at the end of December, 1889, showing a falling off of £278,446; and at first sight you might suppose from this that there had been a permanent falling off in the business and deposits of the bank. But that is not the case. It arises from the fact that the accounts were made up when the bank held a large sum of money which was deposited with it temporarily and under special circumstances, which unduly swelled the figures at that date. But a fair comparison, allowing for that, would show that the deposits at the present moment are about £80,000 larger than they were at the same period in 1889. The notes in circulation show a small increase, and the bills payable show a decrease of £130,000—perhaps a not injudicious contraction of our liabilities considering the state of things we were going through in the autumn of last year. The bills receivable and advances are a little larger. Our investments have risen from £68,547 to £120,123, of which £100,000 is invested in consols, which you probably notice we have written down to 93. There is an increase in the Bank Premises account of £5,000. This is mainly accounted for by our building a bank house at Brandon, which we think will be a good investment, and is warranted by the increase in the business of that new branch. The total amount of profit that we had to deal with for the year was £91,818, and our two dividends absorb £75,000 of it, leaving us with £15,000 over. Of this we have placed £10,000 to the reserve fund and invested it in consols, so that to-day we hold £130,000 in that security. The Court are desirous to see this reserve fund increased. We think that, considering the standing of the bank and the large amount of business we do, it is hardly as large as it ought to be. Then we have placed £2,000 to the Officers' Pension Fund—the same as we did last year, and we have carried over the balance. The competition in the Dominion was very severe last year, both for deposits and business. The rate of the former was raised to 4 per cent. as against 3 per cent., which it was in the previous year, without there being any corresponding advance in the rates of discount and on loans—at least for the first three months of the year. Afterwards the rate hardened, and the banks are now charging 7 per cent. It is satisfactory to see that the bank passed through the severe crisis here last year with its high credit unimpaired and without any loss. The advices which we have received from the other side are favorable, and the volume of business generally in the Dominion appears to be very largely increasing. It is a little too soon to forecast what will be the outcome of the McKinley Act on the business of the bank's customers in Canada, because it will not have any very serious effect anywhere until later in the year. But no doubt the uncertainty which prevails as to the future is cause for some caution on the part of bankers, and that is a matter to which our general manager is very fully alive. But the Canadians have shown such splendid energy in facing the situation and in seeking for new outlets for their produce and for new customers to take the place of the United States, that we hope that, after all, the results may not be quite so disastrous as some have anticipated. The bank passes such an uneventful life that I am afraid there is nothing further for me to say in reference to it, which would be of any interest to you; but I wish to state before I sit down that I think we are much indebted to our general manager, Mr. Grindley, and the staff generally, for the care and ability with which they have carried on the affairs of the bank during the past year. If any gentleman wishes to ask any question before I put the resolution, I shall be happy to answer him to the best of my ability.

Mr. Henry R. Farrer: I beg to second the resolution.

The chairman in reply to Dr. Laurie, said the last three branches which had been opened were now doing satisfactorily.

Dr. Laurie: I am sorry to see that you intend still further to increase the reserve fund without increasing the dividend of the shareholders. I think the shareholders would be much better satisfied if you gave them an increased dividend. I remember, during the time that we met in St. Helen's Place, Mr. Carter, who then presided over us, telling us that in his opinion a reserve fund of £120,000 would be sufficient, but now you are not content with £165,000 for you desire to increase it still further.

The Chairman: Well the times are changed since the period to which you refer. Then £120,000 would have been thought a good reserve fund for banks of this description; but our competitors and neighbors have increased their reserves, and I think that that is a matter very much looked at now.

Dr. Laurier: It doesn't do us any good.

The Chairman: I don't agree with you. I think it increases the credit of the bank. I beg now to move that the report and statement of accounts be received and adopted.

The motion was carried unanimously.

The three directors retiring by rotation—Messrs. J. J. Cater, Henry J. B. Kendall, and J. H. Brodie—were unanimously re-elected.

Sir John Colomb, M. P., proposed the re-election of Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co. as auditors, and the motion was agreed to.

Dr. Laurier moved a vote of thanks to the directors and staff for the care that had been bestowed in the management of the bank.

The resolution was unanimously adopted, and,

The Chairman having acknowledged the vote,

The proceedings terminated.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS

OH, MY BACK!

STOP IT NOW.

SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.

I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 15th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bent over. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when last Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the DRAGON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days, I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

CITY AND PROVINCIAL.

A SHORT VISIT.

Thomas Dwyer Pays Victoria a Visit But Doesn't Stay Long.

Victoria was visited last week by a gentleman (?) who, if his presence in the city had been tolerated much longer, might have become better acquainted with at least some of the bankers of the city. He was Thomas Dwyer, who has won fame throughout the United States for his daring manner of cracking safes at night and robbing banks by daylight. He has served terms in almost every jail in the United States, and has changed his appearance about as many times. He arrived in this city about ten days ago with a light moustache and hair, well dressed, with light spring overcoat, having the appearance of anything but a safecracker. He had only been here two days when Sergeant Walker, with his usual alertness, learned the identity of the individual "who was over here on a visit." He was closely watched until Friday, before which time, however, he had dyed his hair and moustache black, and undergone a complete change, when he was arrested by sergeant and officer Walker, and detained in the lock-up until the departure of the steamer Kingston, on which, by request, he took a trip across the Sound.

Dwyer had not been sent away by the sergeant simply because he was an idle person, for he was not, but the sergeant had, during the time he had watched Dwyer, discovered that if allowed to stay, one of the banks was going to suffer. Very close attention was paid to Dwyer and another man who is at present working in the city as a "blind," and the sergeant obtained the information that the two had a scheme to walk into one of the city banks at about noon and "hold up" the teller for what they could get.

This is not the first time that Sergt. Walker has shown that he is thoroughly conversant with his business, and he deserves the thanks of all for his alertness and quick manner of acting in cases like the above.

Mothers!

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mothers' friend. 35 doses, 35 cents.

A Well Deserved Promotion.

F. J. Stephens, who for years past has held different positions in the C. P. Navigation company's service, has been rewarded for his close attention to business by being appointed agent for the company at Vancouver. Fred. since he first entered the company's office, has worked himself into the confidence of his employers and the promotion is well deserved. A general favorite while purser on the boats, as well as in the office, he has made many friends who will be sorry to hear that he is leaving the city but will heartily congratulate him on his promotion.

Friendly Flags.

In the News-Advertiser of Vancouver, B. C., a correspondent who writes over the simple and unaffected name of "Canuck" protests earnestly against the liberal display (he calls it "flaunting") of the stars and stripes on gala day. He says with grief that that "on the Queen's Birthday, Dominion Day, and on any other public holiday, the display of United States flags far exceeds in number that of the great empire to which we belong." Now this is sad. There is no more devoted subject of the British throne than a really loyal Canadian, like "Canuck," indeed a Canadian who is really in love with British institutions tries to make himself more English than an Englishman. We can imagine and sympathize with the deep sorrow of "Canuck" over the degeneracy of extreme loyalty in these times. Still, he might console himself with the reflection that the display of Old Glory is merely an evidence of good will and friendly feeling, which need not necessarily offend his intense devotion to a country which he has probably never even seen.—Seattle Telegraph.

The Agent General's Opinion.

Mr. H. C. Beeton, the agent-general for British Columbia, who is now on a visit to that Province, is good enough to forward from Victoria an interesting statement of the mortality of Canadian cities. Woodstock, Ontario, had the best record in all Canada during 1890,—the ratio of its deaths per 1,000 being .54. Next came Winnipeg with a ratio of .66, and then Victoria with a ratio of .71. The ratios of other leading cities stood thus:—St. John, New Brunswick, 1.26; Ottawa 1.31; Toronto and Hamilton (each), 1.33; Charlottetown, 1.39; Montreal, 1.84; Halifax, 2.11; and Quebec last with 2.37. We congratulate Victoria upon its excellent record. What Mr. Beeton goes on to say respecting the climate of the Pacific Province reads more like a dream than anything else to us fog-bedimmed mortals. He says:—"We have had a most delightfully mild, open winter; bright sunshine, no snow, and only slight frosts, in very favorable contrast with the winter at home. I assure you I have congratulated myself many a time this winter on being here instead of London. We are about to commence our drainage works, which should make this city what nature designed it to be, a very healthy as well as a very beautiful place of residence."—Canadian Gazette.

It Should Not Be So.

It is a singular fact, but nevertheless true, that the wealthier a man becomes, the more complaints he has. We talk a great deal about the rate of mortality among the poorer classes, and seem to forget about the alarming amount of sickness prevalent in wealthy homes. There are whole classes of fashionable ailments unknown in the poorer districts; and where we find a condition of poverty, sickness is the exception, not the rule.

Nervous troubles, dyspepsia, indigestion, headache, sleeplessness and irritability are more prevalent amongst the wealthy than the poor.

There is not the least reason for this state of things enduring. It ought to be a sin to be sick, especially in the ranks of the higher classes, who have advantages for the enjoyment of a perfect physical life.

It is worthy of note, however, that the wealthy and better classes have the greatest faith in that grand health restorer—Paine's Celery Compound. Its great worth and value have been firmly established as a nerve strengthener and flesh builder; it is a banisher of dyspepsia, and a regulator of the digestive system. It gives rest to the tired brain, and insures sweet natural sleep to all victims of insomnia. Try it, sufferer, if you wish release from your suffering and troubles.

Don't Miss Them.

Tourist Spoons and Opera Glasses.

Mr. A. A. Clayton, of the Diamond Palace, Government street, has now completed and ready for inspection, a large stock of tourist spoons, suitable for souvenirs of Victoria. In the bowls of the spoons are etched scenes of the Gorge, Dunsmuir Castle, Mount Baker, and other pictures of Victoria scenery. He has also just received a consignment of beautiful opera glasses, in pearl and Russia leather, which are pronounced the finest ever imported to this city.

A New Business.

A company to be known as the Pacific Express and Parcels Delivery Co. Ltd., will soon come before the public for patronage. The idea is to establish a central express office in the city connected by telephone to all the business places. A clerk will always be in attendance, and orders left for trucks, drays or express wagons will be quickly attended to. Quick delivery of small parcels will be a special feature, and as considerable capital and competent experience is at the back of the scheme, no doubt the business will be made a paying one.

Let the Poor Drunk.

Since the city limits were extended it has been an undecided question which police force, the city or provincial has charge of the Indian reserve. The Indians must have known this, for frequent complaints were sent to the police about the behavior of the red men. Sergt. Langley of the provincial force therefore sent officer McNeil across on Saturday, and he arrested two Indians then and an Indian and a white man. The white man was the poor unfortunate Peter McLean, who time and again has contributed to the city's funds. He evidently became tired of this and went to the Indian reserve to imbibe, only to run into the hands of the provincial police. The quartette were fined $5 and costs each in the provincial court this morning.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

THE CARIBOO ELECTION.

Mr. Frank Barnard Probably Elected by a Small Majority.

The returns from seven of the remaining nine polling places in Cariboo were received this forenoon. They placed Mr. Barnard 22 ahead with two places—Keithly creek and Harvey creek—still to hear from. The latter will likely give small majorities for Dr. Watt but not sufficient to turn the scale in his favor. The following are the returns with the exception of the two places mentioned:

The Miners' Cases.

The six miners who were sentenced to six weeks imprisonment last week, but who were released for one week on bail, appeared in court this afternoon, and by request of counsel bail was enlarged until Wednesday. The attorney-general did not object to this. Mr. Wilson, for the defense, has moved for a new trial.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

From the North.

The steamer Barbara Boscowitz came in from northern ports Saturday evening at 9 o'clock with a load of cedar and box lumber and oil. She brought the following passengers: Messrs. Draney, Robinson, Traill, Mrs. Johnson daughter, Phillips, Barryer, wife and daughter, Gamble, McNeil, L. Banks and Party of six, Friend, Grant and Thomas, and six Indians. The weather on the coast has been wet and rough, but is getting much milder and the snow is leaving the foothills. The steamer Chieftain has gone up for the first load of oolachans for the season.

Leaving Wellington Fast.

A Free Press representative interviewed some of the non-union miners working at Wellington who, from the terms in which they expressed themselves, do not appear to consider existence in that particular portion of the sub lunary sphere all beer and skittles. They say they make good wages and no kicks are registered against the bosses who do not give themselves any airs just at present but they detest to see so many of the non-union miners going away every week and their places being filled with negroes and furthermore many of these arrivals in Wellington are under the impression that all trouble between bosses and men, had ceased to exist. The upshot of all this is that many of them made up their minds to stay in Wellington and submit to a certain amount of social ostracism for a sufficient time to acquire enough money to get out of it and what is more get a long way off from the scene of the present trouble. There is little doubt that these men are heartily ashamed of the part they are playing in the game now going on at Wellington and where they see the union men sacrificing present comforts for future gain and good, not only for their own families but for all those who are, through force of circumstance, obliged to work in the mines for a living. It is no wonder they wish to leave the country and hide their diminished heads in a distant land. Many houses in North and South Wellington that a short time ago were occupied by miners working in that camp are now deserted and tenantless and many families express their intentions of leaving at an early date.—Nanaimo Free Press.

Peculiar Scientific Fact.

The large clock hanging over Redfern's door on Government street has been stopped for several days. This clock has been a great convenience to the public and consequently many enquiries have been made as to the cause of the trouble. The discovery has been made that owing to the peculiarly delicate construction of the works of the human system that they too will stop unless properly attended to. It will be found that Jones' drug store, near James Bay bridge, contains everything necessary to attain that object.

VERNON, VERNON

THE TERMINUS OF THE

SHUSWAP & OKANAGAN RAILWAY

Situated in the Heart of the Famous Okanagan Valley.

THE RAILWAY CENTRE OF THE INTERIOR

The Shuswap & Okanagan Railway is now under construction, and will be completed and in Operation to Vernon next Summer, 1891.

The Okanagan & Kootenay Railway Co. obtained a charter (with land grants of 20,000 acres per mile) to construct a railway from Vernon to Sproat's Landing, via the Coldstream Valley and Cherry Creek Mines.

A charter will be applied for at the next session of the Local Legislature to construct a Railway from Vernon south to the International Boundary, to connect with the American railway systems.

This is a great chance to make money, as Vernon, being in the heart of the most extensive agricultural district in the Province, will undoubtedly become a large and flourishing city.

Arrangements have been completed with responsible parties for publishing a good weekly paper at Vernon, to commence business early in the new year. This paper will be circulated by the coming mail in all parts of the world.

A Large Hotel will be erected early next spring, and plans for same are now ready.

PLANS OF TOWN-SITE ARE NOW IN ALL REAL ESTATE OFFICES

A large number of lots have already been sold, and most of these will have buildings erected on them early next year.

Special inducements are offered to builders. See price list. Free sites will be given to parties establishing industries.

Financial assistance will also be given to responsible parties engaging in legitimate enterprises.

ADVANCE IN PRICES.

The Company will advance prices of all central lots early next month. Intending purchasers should not delay selecting lots now in order to obtain the benefit of this advance.

Vernon is situated in a pass commanding and making tributary to it the whole of the famous Okanagan Valley and its tributary valleys, the grazing country of the Lower Nicola, the mining camps of Rock Creek, Granite Creek, Koremoos, Okanagan and Similkameen Mountains, the placer diggings of Cherry Creek and Siwash Creek. It is impossible to get to any of the above places without first going through Vernon.

The opening of the Shuswap & Okanagan Railway next summer will flood this favored country with land and mining prospectors, &c., and will give a great impetus to the farming, fruit growing, grazing and mining industries. Several important industries are projected and will likely be started in Vernon next year.

The best advice we can give intending purchasers is to go and see for yourself. The C.P.R. to Sicamous, Stage from Sicamous to Vernon. Leave Vancouver on Mondays or Fridays, arrive Vernon Tuesday or Friday evening.

Coming, Coming, Coming! What? A Garden of Eden

The choicest spot anywhere around Victoria to make a home is undoubtedly in the lovely valley of Cedar Hill. FIR GROVE is situated between the Mount Tolmie and Cedar Hill Roads, with a frontage on both, within one mile from the city. The land is all planted with the choicest varieties of apples, pears, plums and cherries, and, as is well known, Mr. Child has expended a large amount of money and care in the planting of the trees. The ground has all been well under-drained, the soil is of the richest, and for gardening purposes no finer spot exists. The property is now in the hands of surveyors, and will be on the market in the course of a few days. As negotiations are in progress to extend the electric railway past this property, now is the time to buy, as prices will naturally advance with the advent of the railway.
